

Test Study Guide

Know these characters and some of their accomplishments and impact on the story:

- From The Odyssey: Odysseus, Penelope, Telemachus, Calypso, King Alcinous, Polyphemus, Poseidon, Lotus Eaters, Aeolus, Circe, Scylla & Charybdis, Athena
- From Mythology: Perseus, Theseus, Atalanta, Hercules, Jason, Medea, Paris, Helen, Achilles, Hector, Oedipus (No Oedipus for B2)

Know what happened during all the main events from The Odyssey (Use that timeline to make sure you know all the big ones)

Know all terms of the day: xenia, anthropomorphism, kleos, arête, Homeric simile, nostos, allegory, hubris, allusion

Know the steps of the Hero's Journey and what each means. Be able to tie parts of The Odyssey to the steps.

Know about Jonathan Shay's work with war veterans and connections he made between war veterans and Odysseus' experiences.

Know the different ways to introduce quotes (required punctuation and what kinds of things to write about in the evidence introduction)

Test Study Guide

Know these characters and some of their accomplishments and impact on the story:

- From The Odyssey: Odysseus, Penelope, Telemachus, Calypso, King Alcinous, Polyphemus, Poseidon, Lotus Eaters, Aeolus, Circe, Scylla & Charybdis, Athena
- From Mythology: Perseus, Theseus, Atalanta, Hercules, Jason, Medea, Paris, Helen, Achilles, Hector, Oedipus (No Oedipus for B2)

Know what happened during all the main events from The Odyssey (Use that timeline to make sure you know all the big ones)

Know all terms of the day: xenia, anthropomorphism, kleos, arête, Homeric simile, nostos, allegory, hubris, allusion

Know the steps of the Hero's Journey and what each means. Be able to tie parts of The Odyssey to the steps.

Know about Jonathan Shay's work with war veterans and connections he made between war veterans and Odysseus' experiences.

Know the different ways to introduce quotes (required punctuation and what kinds of things to write about in the evidence introduction)